4. Social upliftment: Understanding social institutions and be able to cope with the adverse life situations and resist social exploitation.

18.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system

Teaching is a cultural exercise, embedded in at least one particular knowledge system and one particular set of values. The Indigenous Knowledge Systems and Practices (IKSPs) have been proven to contribute to the sustainability and productivity of many ecosystems, Re-shaping the curriculum is essential to utilize the natives' knowledge and ultimately to benefit both students and teachers. It is noteworthy that though traditional knowledge is important in teacher education and the modern knowledge is also equally Important. Indigenous knowledge includes a local community's traditional technology; social, economic and philosophical learning grounded in spirituality skills, practices and ways of being in nature. It encompasses many areas from farming to law and psychology to mathematics.

The prehistoric paragon of Indian Knowledge and Customs and Traditions have been transcended through courses like, Perspective in Education. Here, philosophy of Vivekananda, Tagore, Gandhiji, Maharshi Arvind, Raja Ram Mohan Ray, etc. have a place. Sanskrit Sambhashan has been arranged for sensitising youth towards our great wealth. As we have been inheriting the Indus Valley knowledge system which has been regarded as one of the ancient cultures all over the globe. It captures all the elements with immediate relevance, such as diversity, openness, scientific-rationale, and logic, to its very core. Indian knowledge systems comprising traditional ways of learning are covered and well introduced across curriculum through the courses of education, philosophy, art, literature, sciences, yoga and sports. Our B.Ed. and M. Ed. Programme includes various components strengthening cultural identity, awareness, and uplifting societies are effective, in terms of enhancing understanding of cultural identity, language acquaintance and the perception of inheritance. Language across curriculum is introduced to ensure proficiency in Indian languages has been integrated well in various programmes offered at the College. The NEP 2020 is an initiative speaking both the intent and the content. Due to value-based existence, ancient practices succeeded in enduring the loss from the violence of time and found contemporary relevance and acceptance in the modern Era through the NEP 2020. This College is trying to sustain teaching-learning practices in effective shape through the Indian knowledge system. The rich Indian Cultural heritage is full of examples proving the significance of continual learning irrespective of any barriers of age or place for that matter. The modern problems and challenges are multidisciplinary in nature. Hence, a crossdisciplinary approach is required to solve them. IITE has offered the best of the content of learning through such concerns. These Indigenous learning styles has been interwoven in Curriculum with observation, imitation, use of narrative/storytelling, collaboration, and cooperation, as seen among local communities.

19.Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

Focus on Outcome based education

The teaching-learning process at this College has aims and objectives, so there has been a central vision as outcome-based process. The twenty-first century is being regarded as the age of ICT, where preserving information and assimilating is very easy, so there are specific outcomes of very specific teaching-learning programmes. Our university, HNGU, Patan has been offering very specific teacher education programmes under its Faculty of Education where a very noble objective is set to achieve and that is to make such a teacher education programme which is globally viable and locally accepted. Indian Knowledge System is an internationally recognised scientific and effective system so the following Outcome Based Education (OBE) are envisaged: UG Programme: B.Ed. and PG Programme M. Ed. programmes have been specifically aiming at multicore development of school teachers and teacher educators who can lead, manage and administer teaching-learning processes at school and college level. Research Programmes: Innovation and research studies are integral parts of Higher Education, the College has Ph.D. guides/Supervisors and under their guidance, 8 students are working for Ph.D.

20.Distance education/online education:

Distance Education/Online Education Corona situation has compelled us and affiliating universities and UGC also have issued Guidelines for Distance Education and Online Education with a Hybrid mode of Education. It is also a need of the hour. This College has made effective use of Online Mode during the pandemic. At present the College is not thinking about Distance Education but the institution is catering the diversified need of our learners in Hybrid Mode with a combination of Online learning through Google Classroom, MOOC Platform, Zoom Seminar etc. with regular teaching and learning process.

Describe the institutional process of planning and/or reviewing, revising curriculum and adapting it to the local context in not more than 100 - 200 words
Our College have a unique and transparent system of curriculum transaction as per the guidelines provided by HNGU. To achieve the target of the curriculum the college has two different programmes B.Ed. and M.Ed. In the B.Ed. Course, there is a strategy of connecting the curricular and co-curricular areas to fulfil the objective of the curriculum. Teaching strategies act as a bridge to fulfil this aspect of the curriculum. An annual Academic Calendar is framed at the start of each academic year and it lays down the programme Orientation, school internship, teaching aids competition, micro-teaching, preliminary examination etc. and tentative timeframe. All faculties carry out their responsibilities both in curricular and co-curricular areas. In the M.Ed. Course, transaction of the curriculum is done through lecture mode, interactive mode, seminar, workshop, project work, and minor research works. Utilisation of IT is encouraged. Internship of the M.Ed. Student-teachers is conducted in other B.Ed. Colleges or in DIET. The most important part of M.Ed. Courses such as academic writing, reviewing of literature, writing of synopsis and eventually writing of dissertation are carried out before the final exam. Students are allotted their own mentor, who gives them the guidance as a caretaker in college.

1.3.1 - Curriculum of the institutions provides opportunities for the students to acquire and demonstrate knowledge, skills, values and attitudes related to various learning areas Describe the curricular thrusts to achieve the following in not more than 100 - 200 words each A fundamental or coherent understanding of the field of teacher education Procedural knowledge that creates teachers for different levels of school education skills that are specific to one's chosen specialization Capability to extrapolate from what one has learnt and apply acquired competencies Skills/Competencies such as: Emotional Intelligence, Critical Thinking, Negotiation and Communication Skills, Collaboration with others, etc.

The field of teacher education is recognized here as one whose problems have been well-known for a long time. A basic understanding of teacher education is being taught by the faculty members signifying the value of micro-teaching and individual development of the pupil. Student teachers of PG are oriented toward a research bent of mind so as to make them competent researchers. For that important observations and skill training practice is imparted. Model classes with audio-visual classes and language lab are conducted. The final evaluation of the students is done with the performance of the students. Students of B.Ed. and M. Ed. are sent to various schools and colleges for teaching practice to acquire the skills and knowledge with experience in real classrooms.

2.2 - Honoring Student Diversity

2.2.1 - Assessment process is in place at entry level to identify different learning needs of students and their level of readiness to undergo professional education programme and also the academic support provided to students Describe the assessment process at entry level to identify different learning needs of students and their level of readiness to undergo professional education programme and also the academic support provided to students, in not more than 100-200 words.

The college distinguishes the moderate students and progressed students at the time of admission. Our college's admission committee members investigate the talent level on behalf of previous education accordingly and classify them into moderate students and high-level learners. The high-level learners students are urged to join different scholastic clubs and gatherings for Youth Festivals exercises. Moderate students are identified on behalf of Graduation and Higher Secondary level percentages. The students are isolated into different groups and given separate topics to attempt the questions. The topics are distinguished and they are asked to step through exams that are exceptionally detailed by their needs. University questions are given to them to be tackled. The guardians are called by the educators to make them mindful of the student's academic performance and how they should be regulated to achieve great results. Directing meetings for both the students and guardians are coordinated at customary intervals. In a few cases, the healing and instructional exercise classes were additionally led for the students. Students are given assignments on an achievement basis so that they can start exploring and creating.

The college has some musical instruments which are useful for better presentation of musical items. They are also taught to decorate the bulletin boards and write news on the blackboard. The practice of gardening work is conducted in the college garden. This provides a sense of regularity. They asked to come inat college and sign the attendance sheet every day before the prayer begins. There is a homeroom group for all the student-teachers. In the homeroom period, each group have to sit at different places in various rooms to conduct homeroom meeting andteachers have to listen to the introduction of the student-teachers and his/her family members and specifically regarding his/her financial and other responsibilities carried at home. At the beginning of B.Ed. course, micro-teaching & simulation lessons are fruitfully useful to generate confidence among the student teachers. Stray lessons and internship programmes and at the last university level lesson examinations are conducted for which very deep lesson guidance sessions are organized for different pedagogical subjects. M. Ed. Students are guided personally by an allotted Guide continuously for their Dissertation related work and other research activities.

Most of the principals of practice teaching schools are alumni members of the college. They are eager to welcome the trainee for a school internship. The school visit is compulsory for all student teachers before one week or pre-decided date. Internship-in-charge teacher-educators inform the school about school visits and internship duration to the principal. On school visit day, one request letter is sent to the principal of each selected school and they also provide a permission letter to the trainee. One school teacher is appointed as an evaluator, and he/she evaluates all the work done by the trainee. Before joining the internship, each student-teacher is oriented in general class and particular pedagogy class about the work assigned to them during the internship. During school visits, they meet the school principal and school teachers and make plans for internships. Particular submission works are divided to each teacher-educator and they explain it in general class. In pedagogy class, they discuss about how to make a particular lesson plan, make a test based on a blueprint etc. Mentors from the school mentoring and teacher-educators assess the work. 2.7 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.7.1 - The teaching learning process of the institution is aligned with the stated PLOs and CLOs. Describe the way in which institution ensures alignment of stated PLOs and CLOs with the teaching learning process in not more than 100 - 200 words.

The Programme Learning Outcome of teacher education college is always related to the Course Learning Outcome. The alignment of the PLOs and CLOs is done in such a way that all teaching faculties are made aware of the ultimate objectives of the curriculum. Each subject stated in the syllabus has its own usefulness and worth in inculcating theoretical and practical knowledge for a student teacher. The ultimate outcome of this whole educational process is to make a good efficient teacher who will eventually be an ideal citizen of the country. Therefore, in the teaching-learning process, the teachers tried their level best to connect the theory with everyday life. The content of the curriculum is discussed and analyzed in such a way that by the end of the course, the student-teachers learn to incorporate their knowledge in practical life. Classroom interactions, discussions, debates, and brain-storming are some of the techniques to enhance the creativity and thinking skills of the students.
